John Leonard Appointed Chairman at Southeastern FCU

Valdosta, Georgia – John Leonard has been appointed Chairman of the Board of Directors at Southeastern Federal Credit Union. Mr. Leonard has been a member of Southeastern FCU for 26 years and has served on the Board of Directors for 15 years. He assumes the two-year term of Chairman from C. Anthony Payton, who will remain on the Board of Directors.

All Southeastern FCU Board members, as with other credit unions, are volunteers who give freely of their time in guiding the general direction of the Credit Union. These individuals are members of Southeastern FCU and are elected by the members of Southeastern FCU. Anyone that has a savings account at the Credit Union is considered a member. Each Board member serves a three-year term.

Southeastern Federal Credit Union currently has 20,300 members with branch offices located in Valdosta, Tifton and Moody AFB.
