Kilgore Appointed to Board of Southeastern FCU

Valdosta, Georgia – Diane Kilgore has been appointed to the Board of Directors at Southeastern Federal Credit Union where she will fulfill the term of the late Webster Morgan.

Ms. Kilgore is retired from the University System of Georgia with 30 years of service to two institutions – Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College (ABAC) in Tifton, GA, where she held the position of Director of Public Service and Business Outreach Center, and the University of Georgia in Athens, GA., where she served in the Registrar’s Office. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Francis Marion University and her Master of Business Administration from Albany State University. She has served on multiple boards, including the Tifton-Tift County Chamber of Commerce, Tift County Literacy Volunteers of America, and Tifton Kiwanis Club.

All Southeastern FCU Board members, as with other credit unions, are volunteers who give freely of their time in guiding the general direction of the Credit Union. These individuals are members of Southeastern FCU and are elected by the members of Southeastern FCU. Each Board member serves a three-year term.
